FOREWORD

The Kenya Institute of Primate Research (KIPRE) operates as a state corporation within the Ministry of Health's Department of Public Health and Professional Standards. It was established under legal notice 273 of 2017, anchored of the Science, Technology and Innovation Act 28 of 2013.

I am honored to present the Consultancy Policy in my role as the Board Chairperson of KIPRE. The policy showcases the institute's devotion to leveraging its biomedical research knowledge and resources to provide consultancy services that meet the highest standards of professionalism and ethical behavior. The policy is designed in alignment with the Kenyan Constitution and other relevant legal frameworks.

The Consultancy Policy provides a comprehensive framework for engaging in consultancy services, ensuring that all activities are conducted transparently, ethically, and in a manner that benefits both the institution and its clients. It outlines the procedures for initiating, managing, and evaluating consultancy projects, thus promoting accountability and excellence in service delivery.

By implementing this policy, KIPRE seeks to enhance its contribution to the biomedical field, not only through research but also by providing valuable consultancy services that drive innovation and improve public health outcomes.

Professor Josephat Mulimba, PhD., FRSM

Chairman, Board of Directors

PREFACE

As the Chief Executive Officer of KIPRE, the establishment of the Consultancy Policy is a strategic move to extend the institution's impact beyond research. This policy is designed to guide the provision of consultancy services, ensuring they are conducted with the utmost integrity and in compliance with relevant legal standards.

The Consultancy Policy is rooted in the principles outlined in the Kenyan Constitution, the Public Procurement and Asset Disposal Act, and other pertinent regulations. It details the processes for securing and managing consultancy contracts, emphasizing the importance of transparency, accountability, and quality in all consultancy engagements.

This policy is essential for fostering a culture of excellence and professionalism in consultancy services, reinforcing KIPRE's position as a trusted leader in biomedical research. It aims to ensure that the expertise within KIPRE is effectively utilized to provide impactful consultancy services that advance the institution's mission and contribute to societal health improvements.

Signed:

DEFINITION OF TERMS

Client - The organization or individual receiving consultancy services from KIPRE staff and associate scientists affiliated with KIPRE.

Consultancy - The provision of expert services to external clients aimed at addressing their specific needs.

Consultancy Central Register - A centralized database maintained by the Institute to track various types of consultancy projects. The register includes details such as the duration, location, names of involved staff, income generated, and the proportion of income awarded to beneficiaries.

Consulting - Any form of knowledge transfer where expertise from within the Institute is applied successfully outside the Institute for financial gain.

Contract Research - Organized, systematic, and orderly activities that generate new knowledge or synthesize and analyze existing knowledge. These activities aim to create new concepts, innovations, designs, methodologies, understandings, applications, and solutions to specified problems under mutually agreed terms and conditions.

Customer Charter - A set of standards or code of practice set by KIPRE outlining the expected standard of services for customers, procedures to follow if service delivery issues arise, and follow-up procedures. The charter specifies minimum standards for business service provision to external clients.

Extension - Research or scholarly activities that span research, training, and service. These activities focus on generating, transmitting, applying, and preserving knowledge for the direct benefit of external communities, representing an ongoing exchange between the institute and the broader society.

Income - The financial proceeds obtained from consultancy activities.

Institute - Kenya Institute of Primate Research.

Private Consultancy - Consultancy work that does not use KIPRE resources, is not secured through the Institute, and whose payments do not go through KIPRE accounts.

Service Consultancy - Expert professional advice in a specific field identified by the client, based on their requirements and specifications. This may include preparing operational frameworks, policy documents, guidelines, designs, concepts, innovations, and implementation, monitoring, and evaluation frameworks.

Training/Capacity Development - The provision of tailor-made in-service training modules, lasting from a few days to several weeks.

ARTICLE 1. INTRODUCTION

The Kenya Institute of Primate Research (KIPRE), whose mandate is biomedical and pre-clinical research, is a semi-autonomous government agency established under the Legal Notice No. 273 of 2017 in the Science, Technology and Innovation Act No. 28 of 2013. KIPRE, operates under the Ministry of Health, State Department for Public Health and Professional Standards through the Presidential Executive order No. 1 of January, 2023.

1.1 Vision

To be a global centre of excellence in innovative basic and preclinical biomedical research and non-human primate conservation.

1.2 Mission

To improve human health and biodiversity through advances in basic and preclinical biomedical research and non-human primate conservation.

1.3 Core Values

The core values include: - Research integrity, Professionalism, Good corporate governance, Equity, and Customer focus.

1.4 Guiding Principles

The guiding principles include: - Efficiency, Teamwork, Partnership, Innovativeness, and Dynamism.

1.5 Functions

The functions of the Institute (as stated in legal notice No. 273 of 2017) shall be to:

- m. Perform any other function which is incidental to the performance of any of the foregoing functions.

ARTICLE 2. POLICY STATEMENT, RATIONALE, SCOPE AND OBJECTIVES

2.1 Policy statement

KIPRE is committed to supporting external engagements that facilitate research knowledge and technology transfer contributing to economic and social impact. This external engagement takes many forms but in defined circumstances may be considered as “consulting” activity.

2.2 Rationale

The rationale of this Policy is to provide guiding principles and procedures for undertaking consultancy services by KIPRE. The staff of KIPRE are encouraged to undertake consultancy and other similar work provided it does not conflict with the interests of the Institute. It is expected that consultancy will increase the professional and academic competence by way of stimulating research and scholarship besides applying knowledge for solving real life problems. This will further facilitate problem-solving capacity and enrich professional experience outside research and increase the contribution of KIPRE to the society and the economy. It is also envisaged that consultancies will help in developing linkages between KIPRE and external organizations that will in turn increase opportunities for research thus furthering the Institute to achieve its mission of knowledge transfer in order to improve the local and regional economies.

2.3 Scope

The policy covers any work or activity undertaken by KIPRE staff in their field of expertise, for clients in government, private sector or external agencies, for which some financial return is provided in the form of professional fees or honorarium. Staff may only engage in consultancy activities that have been approved by the Director General.

2.4 Objectives

This policy aims to:

- i. Guide negotiations with clients seeking KIPRE or KIPRE staff consultancy services.
- ii. Develop robust quality control mechanisms for all consultancy services.
- iii. Coordinate and regulate all (corporate and staff) generated consultancies in KIPRE.
- iv. Provide guidelines on how benefits are shared between the Institute and the staff consultant.
- v. Motivate KIPRE staff to undertake consultancies that ultimately impact positively on the capacity and reputation of the Institute.
- vi. Provide a flexible framework within which various consultancies are undertaken by staff and the Institute for mutual benefit.

ARTICLE 3. PRE-REQUISITES FOR ENGAGING IN CONSULTANCIES AS A KIPRE STAFF

- i. All KIPRE consultancies must be approved by the Director General.
- ii. The consultancy must be within the Institute's mandate of research, training and extension.
- iii. The staff undertaking the consultancy must have the pre-requisite competencies.
- iv. All staff undertaking consultancy must register their names, their expertise and the nature of consultancy with the Director General.
- v. The work being undertaken shall be costed with guidance by the Directorate of Capacity Building, Partnership & Grants Management.
- vi. To mitigate financial and other risks, all consultancy contracts must be approved by the immediate Deputy Director, Director of Capacity Building, Partnership & Grants Management, and office of the Director General.
- vii. To protect the standard of services rendered to KIPRE clients:
 - a. Consultancy procedures and quality of outputs must be in line with the Institute's service delivery charter.

- b. Reports for all consultancies undertaken should be shared with the office of the Director General.
 - c. Costing for all consultancies should be within current market rates.
 - d. Consultancies should be conducted in a manner that preserves one's integrity and that of the Institute while maintaining public confidence.
- viii. The consultancy being undertaken should not jeopardise the reputation of KIPRE.
- ix. If more than one staff undertake a consultancy, the roles of each must be clearly stipulated from the onset.
- x. The client seeking consultancy services from KIPRE staff must commit to cater for travel insurance, accommodation, transport costs, meals, stationery, monitoring and evaluation costs and any other overheads associated with the undertaking.
- xi. The extent to which any KIPRE facilities or resources will be used must be clearly defined and costed in consultation with the procurement office. The Consultant(s) must reimburse the Institute for the use of its facilities such as money, materials, and staff.
- xii. The consultant(s) will safeguard the institute against conflicts of interest and indemnify it against financial risks.
- xiii. Where costs are to be reimbursed by the client, a contract must be signed to acknowledge and formally confirm the commitment that the client will pay.
- xiv. No client rights should be threatened or violated during the consultancy.
- xv. The consultancy shall not interfere with the efficiency of research activities within the Institute.
- xvi. This policy recognizes that KIPRE staff may be involved in consultancies within their professional capacity. All consultancies done in this capacity shall ensure that:
 - a. All activities are undertaken such that the Institute is not held in disrepute.
 - b. Staff must make their arrangements to pay tax on their income.
 - c. There must be no identifiable conflict of interest or competition with KIPRE activities.
 - d. The use of KIPRE trademarks such as logo, stationeries, brands, name or KIPRE intellectual property is strictly prohibited.
 - e. Failure to declare or obtain prior approval for professional consultancy shall result in disciplinary action.
 - f. The work undertaken should not be of a volume likely to impact on workload/liability.

- g. The institute shall have no financial interests but will seek to ensure that its reputation is protected and that it incurs no liabilities.

- iii. 20% net income due to the relevant Division

Note: The percentage of effort contribution shall be determined before the consultancy exercise, documented, and deposited with the Director General.

ARTICLE 7. PROCEDURES FOR CONDUCTING CONSULTANCY WORK

Consultancy services and the procedures for conducting consultancy projects will be examined in the following stages:

- i. A consultancy opportunity can be identified, either by the staff or by the institute. It is then passed to the Office of the Director of Capacity Building, Partnership & Grants Management for registration, analysis of viability and practicability, and then forwarded to the office of the Director General for approval.
- ii. Where the consultancy has been sourced by the institute, the Office of the Director of Capacity Building, Partnership & Grants Management will identify the appropriate consultant(s) to undertake the consultancy.
- iii. The Director of Capacity Building, Partnership & Grants Management in consultation with selected consulting team shall then prepare a technical and financial proposal for submission to the client.
- iv. Once the proposal has been accepted by the client, contract agreement shall be prepared for signing between KIPRE and the client. The agreement shall include the project scope, key deliverables, agreeable cost/price structure and timescales required to accomplish the task. The client shall approve the proposal, sign the contract and pay the cost of the consultancy for the work to commence as agreed by the parties in the contract.
- v. Work shall commence as agreed between the client and KIPRE. KIPRE shall deliver work outputs according to the client's terms of reference. On the project completion, KIPRE shall submit the final report to the client with all deliverables.

ARTICLE 8. IMPLEMENTATION

Upon approval by KIPRE board of directors, the implementation of this policy will be under the office of the Director General.

ARTICLE 9. COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS AND REGULATIONS

This Policy shall be operationalized in accordance with relevant national laws and KIPRE's legal notice No. 273 of 2017. Compliance with this policy is mandatory. In the event of non-compliance with the directives of this Policy, staff members will be subjected to disciplinary action as set out in their terms and conditions of employment.

ARTICLE 10. DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Any dispute arising in the course of consultancy shall be reported to the Director General for resolution.

ARTICLE 11. MONITORING AND REVIEW OF IMPLEMENTATION

The Director of Capacity Building, Partnership and Grants Management shall monitor the implementation of this policy, regularly considering its suitability, adequacy and effectiveness.

ARTICLE 12. REVIEW AND AMENDMENTS

This Policy shall be reviewed every three (3) years or as need arises.
