FY 2024/2025 INTERNSHIP VACANCIES IN MDAs

The Public Service Commission is mandated to promote and strengthen human resources in the public service by designing and implementing programmes and projects that are aligned with its constitutional and legislative obligations. The Public Service Internship Programme (PSIP) is one such programme, designed to give young graduates a chance to gain practical work experience and skills within Ministries, Departments and Agencies (MDAs) for a period of Twelve (12) months.

The PSIP programme, a response to demands in the job market for practical skills, facilitates the interns to experience the world of work to enable them improve their competitive edge in their job search. To date, more than 20,000 interns in Six (6) cohorts have been on the programme, and a good number of them have gone on to secure employment in public sector institutions, including county governments and state corporations, as well as private sector organizations.

The Commission will soon be inviting applications from interested candidates for PSIP Cohort 7 under the 2024/2025 Financial Year. Consequently, Ministries, Departments and Agencies (MDAs) are invited to submit details of available internship vacancies on the format below:
